

Skilled staff and 50 years experience put to work for your company

Our directorship and management team is comprised of senior ex-service personnel with a combined total of more than fifty (50) years experience in private security, law enforcement and general police duties.

All security supervisors are ex-police or ex-military personnel.

We work with your budget to insure that your business requirements are achieved

Our expert security analysts will survey your premises; review your activities and submit a proposal for a comprehensive security package covering all your needs.

Proper supervision of officers ensures service quality

Regular unannounced visits are made to assignments to ensure that all security procedures are being observed and examine for possible weakness. Every month a Performance and Operational review is conducted for each duty to which our officers are assigned. This document is used to regularly tune our services by highlighting opportunities to improve the quality of service.

THE SMART WAY
TO MOVE
YOUR CASH

The safe transport of your cash and valuables is handled by trained, armed guards and transported in semi-armored vehicles. Your package remains sealed from origin to destination.

CASH IN TRANSIT

What is this service?

This is the safe transport of cash and valuables throughout Trinidad and Tobago. Highly trained, armed guards will pickup and deliver your package in a semi-armored vehicle. You will have constant contact with our vehicles and crews while your valuables are in transit.

Who uses it for what?

This service is utilized by corporate, industrial, recreational, educational and private sectors. Typically, this service is used to transport cash to banks throughout Trinidad and Tobago.

How does it work?

Our armed officers will pick up the package from you or your representative. You will be provided a photo listing of all the guards in the crew transporting your valuables along with radio or cellular communication channels.

We employ semi-armored vehicles, minimizing the risk or exposure to potential loss. Packages stay sealed during the entire journey and are hand delivered by your First Guards representative.

For many businesses this service provides a safe and minimal risk alternative to handling cash, without exposing their staff or themselves to potential danger.
